

Residential Locations of Homicide Victims Ages 15-24 in Northeastern Illinois 2008-2012

Legend

Homicide Victims Ages 15-24

- One dot = residential address of one homicide victim

During years 2008-2012, 1,212 of the 1,524 Illinois homicide victims ages 15-24 years resided in Cook County. This represents 79.5% of the statewide total of homicides for this age group. The estimated population age 15-24 in Cook County during this time period was 730,920, which only accounts for 40.6% of the statewide total for this age group.

Map created March, 2013, IDPH Office of Information Technology

Data Sources: Illinois Department of Public Health Division of Vital Records Death Certificate Data. Final (closed) data was used for deaths in years 2008-2009. Preliminary data which was used for years 2010-2012 may result in incomplete or incorrect totals and statistics. U.S. Census Bureau.