

Environmental Testing

General Information

Environmental testing is not directly available to individuals but must be requested through approved local health departments, regional offices or other public agencies. Requests for special or non-routine analyses must be coordinated through the laboratory in conjunction with the public agency.